Well - I didn't see that one coming... it would appear that I have started a tarantula boarding service. 04-07-2008

It looks like I'll be looking after some spiders for a friend... this is a first for the diaries, and will add, for a few short months, 5 spiders to the current crew, making a total of 15...

I've got budget for tanks, and food etc, so the mission begins tomorrow when I'm off to get some tanks. So, could be a winner all round - my friend gets some baby spiders grown and looked after for him, I get to look after and photograph some more wonderful little animals, and you lot get to see the pictures, so we can all join in the fun... So, this will be the page where we add information, pics and video about our temporary charges, though they might also make it into the main diary occasionally... So, what's heading our way then ? And when ? In the name of dramatic tension, I'll leave that til the next update :) See you then folks...
